John Basdakis Profile

The Performer: Entertaining the entertainers – “A” list television and motion picture personalities have been among Mr. Basdakis’ audiences. Performances include: theater, television, conventions, public building inaugurations, festivals, benefits, weddings, public, and private clubs...and more.

The Director: Tens of thousands of people have seen exhibition performances from groups directed by Mr. Basdakis. Groups he has personally directed include the Aegean, Olympians, Salona, Levendia, Apoffiti Olympian, Paramythia, Toumba!, Omikron, Genesis, Ftut Ftut and Paralia. “A”-list Hollywood film and television personalities, and political dignitaries--including a former U.S. Presidential candidate, U.S. Secretary of State, and Senators, have been entertained by or have danced among his exhibition dance groups.

The Choreographer: “Creative”, “Imaginative”, “Refreshing”, “Inspiring”, “Moving”, are how both critics and audiences have described Mr. Basdakis’ choreographies. Dances performed to the great musical compositions of Theodorakis, Zambetas, Hadjidakis and others have awed, entertained, amused, and even shocked audiences with powerful and dramatic interpretations of instrumental music both contemporary and traditional. Mr. Basdakis was one of the first Greek folk dance directors to successfully combine award-winning costumes along with music, song and dance, all live and on stage.

Training the Trainers: Many of Mr. Basdakis’ dancers have become renowned Greek Dance Directors in their own right, including an amazing 50% of his former Olympian Dancers, many of which became highly awarded Directors. More awards are held by Mr. Basdakis’ former dancer-turned-director students than any other trainer in North America.
